
Career Development Training Series – I: Tips from the boss

Date: 24th November 2017

Location: D0309, The Open University of Hong Kong

Type: Seminar

To prepare students for a successful career, a series of career talks have been organized. This event was the first of the series in 2018. Mr. Lawrence Chan, the Managing Director of a technology company, gave an overview of the current situation and future trend of engineering and I.T. sectors in Hong Kong. He also shared his 20+ years of experience of working in mega projects, and suggested ways students could plan for their career. 70 full-time students participated.
