

Technical Visit to HKIA

Date : 17th March 2017

Location : Lantau, Hong Kong

Type : Technical Visits

Student will know more about the development of HKIA after the technical visit. In tour, visiting the core areas, Integrated Airport Centre, let student understanding more the real time monitoring of airport operation and contingency management. Also, student relished the opportunity to learn more about the green initiatives for instance E-vehicle charging station. During the visit, student could gain insights into the daily operation of the airport and the green power implement.

