

Technical Visit to Stonecutters Island Sewage Treatment Works

Date : 3rd June 2017

Location : Stonecutters Island Sewage Treatment Works

Type : Technical Visits

As for prevention of the water pollution, Stonecutters Island Sewage Treatment Works is one of the main characters in urban development. During the tour, main pumping station and sludge dewater facility were introduced in detail by the principle, student comprehended more about the daily operation in sewage treatment works. The student of Open University of Hong Kong also visited the HATS stage 1 for understanding the operation of facilities to widen their exposure.

